Positive thinking in a difficult time

It seems like all we hear about these days is financial crises and missing orders. We have decided to approach it differently! Now is the time to develop. Many customers currently have put investments on hold, but they have not stopped looking after new ways to improve and optimize their production. Therefore this is the time for inspiration and motivation.

Currently we are also seeing a lot of positive movements in the market. LesaTech in Italy has been able to open the door to some of the biggest helmet manufactures in the world, and both Amecci/Les Abrasifs in Canada and S&P in Belgium have been able to increase their sales in a difficult market.

Technodomus fair, Italy 2009.

Flex Trim participated this year in the Technodomus exhibition in Rimini in Italy, and together with LesaTech we had a very successful exhibition.

EWEC 2009 – Europe's premier wind energy event.

Last week Jacob Pascual from Spain visited the Ewec 2009 exhibition wind exhibition, in Marseilles, France. The show was a big success and we came back with a lot of good contacts within both the wind industry as well as other composite companies
